LEVELS • LEVEL 10 COMPLETED (MOST OF) LEVELS: - LEVEL 1 - LEVEL 2 - LEVEL 3 - LEVEL 4 - LEVEL 5 - LEVEL 6 - LEVEL 7 - LEVEL 8 - LEVEL 9 - LEVEL 10 SCORE SYSTEM In addition to the main trophies you will earn every time you successfully complete a level you will also get a score for your attempt. You can see your score at the bottom right hand corner of the screen when you are in the challenge and at the top right hand corner when you are in the cleanup. ISSUES If you have any issues or have a suggestion, please email [email protected] Hints and Information: DO NOT USE A LIFT TO STEER YOUR KAYAK If you are using a kayak or paddle-board, it is important to understand the physics of the game. It is very easy to be over-powered and constantly knock your kayak around. If you are playing the challenge and want to be clever with it, then do not use the lift. Do not use the lift at all. SCORE The score you get in the challenge is based on time taken (obstacles pass more slowly than you) but in the cleanup mode, the speed that you do it in will be part of the score. So if you take a long time to clean up the mountain you will earn less than if you were quick. This means that a good strategy for the challenge is to pick up as many rocks as you can get your hands on and just make it to the end. This is not a good strategy for the cleanup mode, because the river is faster than you and you will not get much time to collect any trash. CRASH If you do crash into something it will splash your kayak around. If your time is up when you crash, you have to start again. Also, when you are floating down the river in the challenge mode and you hit a rock, that will count as a crash and you will restart. HARDWARE I would recommend using a configuration that has similar specs to mine, however, you can still play the game if you are using the following configurations. Orientation: Natural Screen Resolution: 1920x1080 OS: Mac OSX Sierra v c9d1549cdd

What's new:

Segment Howard Steele - sports analyst Eunice Puthrikadandy - newsreader Chris Marshall - music director On behalf of all of us at Radio 2:Eighty-Five FM we want to wish you a very happy and a very, very Merry Christmas. With Christmas comes presents and we all want presents. We believe that if we look under the tree and make a wish - we are very specific about that - we then are much more likely to receive it. So we have even made a Christmas wish list, which is so important and we've put it on our website and we've included some of the good things that we receive. [ Radio 2: If you missed the program, it can still be accessed at the Program Archive or by clicking here.] We also wished Eunice a Merry Christmas, as she works so hard at the news desk. I do so like Eunice and I don't think she's ever made a wish list, but she is fond of two occasions where she's been wished a Merry Christmas and I do think we want to wish her a Merry Christmas. With that, we're off. There is a tremendous catalogue of results out there and we'll tell you what is relevant to you. First up, look for Premier League results, starting with bottom club West Ham. They have one thing in common with Elland Road, in that they've got an English manager in charge. They have beaten Coventry at the Lane and now the derby at Upton Park is the first step on the road to the drop zone. Bradford have brought their season to an early close by going down at fellow strugglers Millwall and there was one other weekend to go before the floodgates really opened. That's when Watford and Burnley kicked off. With a 3-2 victory over their neighbours, Burnley have the smallest home win percentage in the division. Bradford haven't won at Millwall since 1989, in fact they haven't won away from home all year, so it's an uphill battle and a challenge for them, even though it's one which Watford dominated. At the top, Manchester City stay on top and if next week's results come off Leicester and Arsenal, the Citizens will move to 25 points clear and would be runners up. Lifting the lid on their league position, Manchester City confirmed why they are so far ahead of rivals Manchester United. They are unbeaten at home and

The House in Fata Morgana is a series about a little girl suffering from a loss of touch with her memories, but she finds herself able to overcome her problems. The House is a unique place for this young girl to live in, and Keika Hanada and Moyataro create a remarkable atmosphere. The panel discussion is scheduled to last about 35 minutes. Since the panel was recorded about a year ago, the soundtrack is a little outdated. As it's a very in-depth discussion, the highlights from the panel discussion are mostly included. Also, there is a scene of 4 minutes of fireworks at the end of the recording. For people who want to watch the fireworks, there is a separate recording at the end of the panel discussion.
